Autocross at SEAC Park 28th September

Written by Geoff Wilson

Saturday 28th saw the running of a Day/Night Autocross at SEAC Park, held under the directorship of novice director, Matthew Kirby. A very good entry list of 40 odd competitors came out to play on what appeared to be a good track surface. Round by round results came up with some interesting times.

First Round and Quickest by a good margin, Dale Cagney had his Mitsubishi Evo in race mode to be some 6 seconds better than the nearest competitor, who just happened to be his son, Nick Cagney, driving the wheels off his Commodore.

Following close behind in a Subaru, Ryan Poel was next with visiting Taswegian Stephen Turner hot on his heels in 4th, followed by Geoff Wilson in a Peugeot, 0.06 seconds in front of son Damien in his Nissan Silvia, with Sam Becker next quickest 7th, Bordertown regular Adam Jessie in front of Director Matt Kirby and Mark Jennings to round out the Top 10. All had found the track to be very skatey on the dry patches and very slippery where the large pools of water had been laying for a week or two.

Round 2 and Dale Cagney continued on with another very quick round with a time of 1:47.09, some 2.5 seconds better than his first round time. Ryan Poel felt a bit more at home on the second heat and bettered his time by some 3.5 seconds, down to 1:53.34 seconds to be second quickest, with Stephen Turner next by 0.03 of a second and 3rd in his 2WD Mitsubishi Mirage – very tidy and very quick. Damien Wilson had a good run to be next home with a time of 1:55.28, heading Matt Kirby's Laser by 0.05 seconds for the 5th, John Whitehead getting into race mode next on the list another 0.06 seconds behind, followed by Geoff Wilson a further 0.5 a second behind in 7th, in front of Sam Becker's Sigma by the same margin in 8th, Adam Jesse just behind the Sigma 0.4 seconds and rounding out the 10 Liam Lewis' flamboyant style of driving his Commodore got him across the line 0.5 of a second behind Adam.

No surprises in heat 3 with Dale again on his own at the top with a 1:45.59 bettering his second round by another 1.5 seconds. The "Wet" spots have been emptied out and spread across the track, with other areas that were quite slippery before, now giving plenty of grip, specially in a 4WD. Ryan Poel continued on in position 2 also lowering his previous time by over 2 seconds to a 1:51.16.

Nicholas Cagney, returning in his Commodore after some maintenance issues dropping him out in the second round, threw it around, as he does, and rocked in a 1:52.00 to edge out the Tasmanian Stephen Turner in his neat Mirage by 0.16 seconds.

Sam Becker, showing excellent skills in the Skidma came in next with a 1:52.94 good enough for 5th slot. Damien Wilson and Mark Jennings have a similar style of driving, but in totally different cars. The “small” and nimble Nissan S13 is always quick and good to watch, as is the extreme style of sliding driving by Speedway expert, Mark Jennings in the “large” F6 Falcon. A feat rarely seen at SEAC Park, these two put in exactly the same times on the 3rd Round, clock stopped at 1:53.75 for equal 6th positions. Adam Jesse managed to pinch 8th with 1:54.28 from Geoff Wilson, with his 1:54.34 for 9th and Matt Kirby repeating his last round for the 10th slot.

Round 4, first of the night runs, no one got near Cagney Senior’s Mitsubishi Evo 4WD’s time of 1:45.49, nearly the same as Round 3 time and still way out in front, Ryan Poel holding 2nd spot with a slightly slower time, Cagney Junior also similar time and good enough for 3rd spot. Damien Wilson bettered his previous time by 0.15 second to get the 4th spot from a hard charging Sigma in Sam Becker’s hands, 1:53.78 for the round a mere 0.18 seconds behind Wilsons Nissan S13. Matt Kirby had “tidy” run this round, stopping the clock at 1:54.18 seconds for 6th spot, edging Stephen Turner back to 7th with his time of 1:54.37 for the first night round at SEAC Park. Liam Lewis had the Commodore well wound up in the dark, came in with a 1:55.07 for his effort at the Wheel. Followed home by Mark Jennings in his Falcon with a time of 1:56.04, good enough to edge out John Whitehead in his Buggy with a time of 1:56.28 to round out the top 10.

John Whitehead

Mark Jennings

Round 5, second night round, Cagney Senior again out in front with the Evo setting the pace at 1:48.72, in front of Cagney Junior in his (2WD) Commodore with an excellent time of 1:51.96 for 2nd spot, in front of Sam Becker’s Sigma again quick with a 1:52.00 for 3rd spot, 4th going to the Taswegian’s Mirage with a 1:53.28 in 5th, and Ryan Poel getting 6th with the clock stopped at 1:53.71. Liam Lewis got the 7th spot in his Commodore with a 1:54.50 time, edging out Damien Wilson with the S13’s time of 1:54.62 filling the spot for 8th. John Whitehead came in the next spot with a 1:55.13 round again being matched to the 100th of a second by fellow competitor Josh Becker, Club Junior and sharing the Becker family Sigma for an equal 9th spot, up from his previous 4 rounds at 14th spot.

Round 6, last run for this event, Cagney Senior finishing the day with another very quick run of 1:45.81 to take the top position on the podium with all 6 rounds. Quietly making his way around the SEAC Park Circuit for the first time, on the advice of some Tasmanian mates that came over here for the Australian Khanacross Championship in 2018, Stephen Turner put in a blinder for his last run, getting in the groove in his Mirage to be the only other competitor to get into the 1:40's along side Dale Cagney, stopping the clock with a 1:49.25 seconds for this last blast. Quite a feat in a 2WD at any time, made all the sweeter being in the dark!!

Nicholas Cagney, consistent in 5 of the 6 rounds, again put in another quick run with a 1:51.56 good enough to fill spot 3 for this round. Ryan Poel cranked up his Subaru WRX for the last round and finished with a 1:52.59 for 4th spot, just in front of Sam Beckers Sigma with his run at 1:53.4. John Whitehead pushed the Buggy as hard as he could for a 1:54.37 to get home in 6th, with Liam Lewis a blink behind at a 1:54.57 and Mark Jennings again a blink further back at a 1:54.94. Having an enjoyable outing in his Mitsubishi Magna Chris Clayson found some extra in the last round, pushing the Magna to the limit for a 1:55.18, some 3 seconds better than his previous best times. Rounding out the top 10, Damien Wilson pushed the S13 to its limits, but could only manage a 1:55.44 for his final round.

Wow, what a day! Apart from Cagney Senior there were a lot of very close times between many of the "regular" attendees at SEAC Park.

After scores were tallied and penalties applied, it was of no surprise that Dale Cagney was in position 1, with all 6 rounds under his belt and a total time of 10:42.16 seconds. Position 2 points went to our Tasmanian Visitor Stephen Turner, driving the SEAC Park Complex for the first time and "having a ball" to quote him. The Mirage managed to accrue 2nd best total time of 11:19.70 seconds. Ryan Poel just missed the 2nd spot, a total of 11:19.90 for the day placing him in 3rd outright by a mere 20 seconds over the whole day. Sam Becker has been improving at each outing and put a good string of runs together for his best result, having the "Skidma" Sigma get around for a total of 11:27.78 seconds good enough for 4th outright. Damien Wilson put in a consistent day in his Nissan S13 to clock up 11:31.00 seconds and get the 5th points for this outing.

Mark Jennings had the Falcon on fire all day and apart from the huge grin on his face after every run, he put together some tidy times, ending with a total of 11:37.35 good enough to fill 6th spot on the outright list.

John Whitehead had a mixed day out with the Buggy struggling for grip in the early runs, but salvaged the end runs and finished in 7th outright with a total of 11:38.25 seconds. Liam Lewis has a driving style that is normally seen on Speedway circuits and has the Commodore sideways everywhere and flat out. Managing some reasonable times as well as seeing more track than most, he was able to secure 8th spot with a total of 11:38.47 seconds. Geoff Wilson had his first outing after celebrating his 70th Birthday the day before and gave the Peugeot 306 a caning each time out on the track. Day runs were up there with the others, but the night runs were a bit more cautious, resulting in a total time of 11:40.22 for the day and 9th outright.

Director of the day, Matt Kirby had a huge day, Directing AND running his Ford Laser with mixed results. A very ordinary run in the last round cost him dearly and dropped him to 10th outright, but he managed to do both jobs very well with the day running very smoothly and only a couple of hold ups due to vehicle breakdowns or contact with tyre barriers etc.

He has thanked all those competing, officiating and participating in the working bee before the event. The results have yet to be verified by score checkers.

The final Autocross is listed to be held at SEAC Park on 27th October, a "normal" day event.

Also listed is a Rallycross, scheduled to be held on 19th October at SEAC Park, followed on the Sunday 20th with a Khanacross to be run at Millicent Sale yards complex.

QUILL FOR BIG TRIAL

MOUNT GAMBIER, Today: Well-known Mount Gambier trials driver Tom Quill has lodged his entry for the 7,000-mile Ampol trial.

The trial, which has attracted more than 300 entries is due to start from Sydney in June.

Officials of the company surveying the route visited Mount Gambier yesterday. The trial will pass through Mount Gambier on June 24.

Control points will be manned by members of the South-East Auto Club.

The grand gala stomp which was the feature attraction at last night's Jaycee Carnival drew the biggest crowd so far.

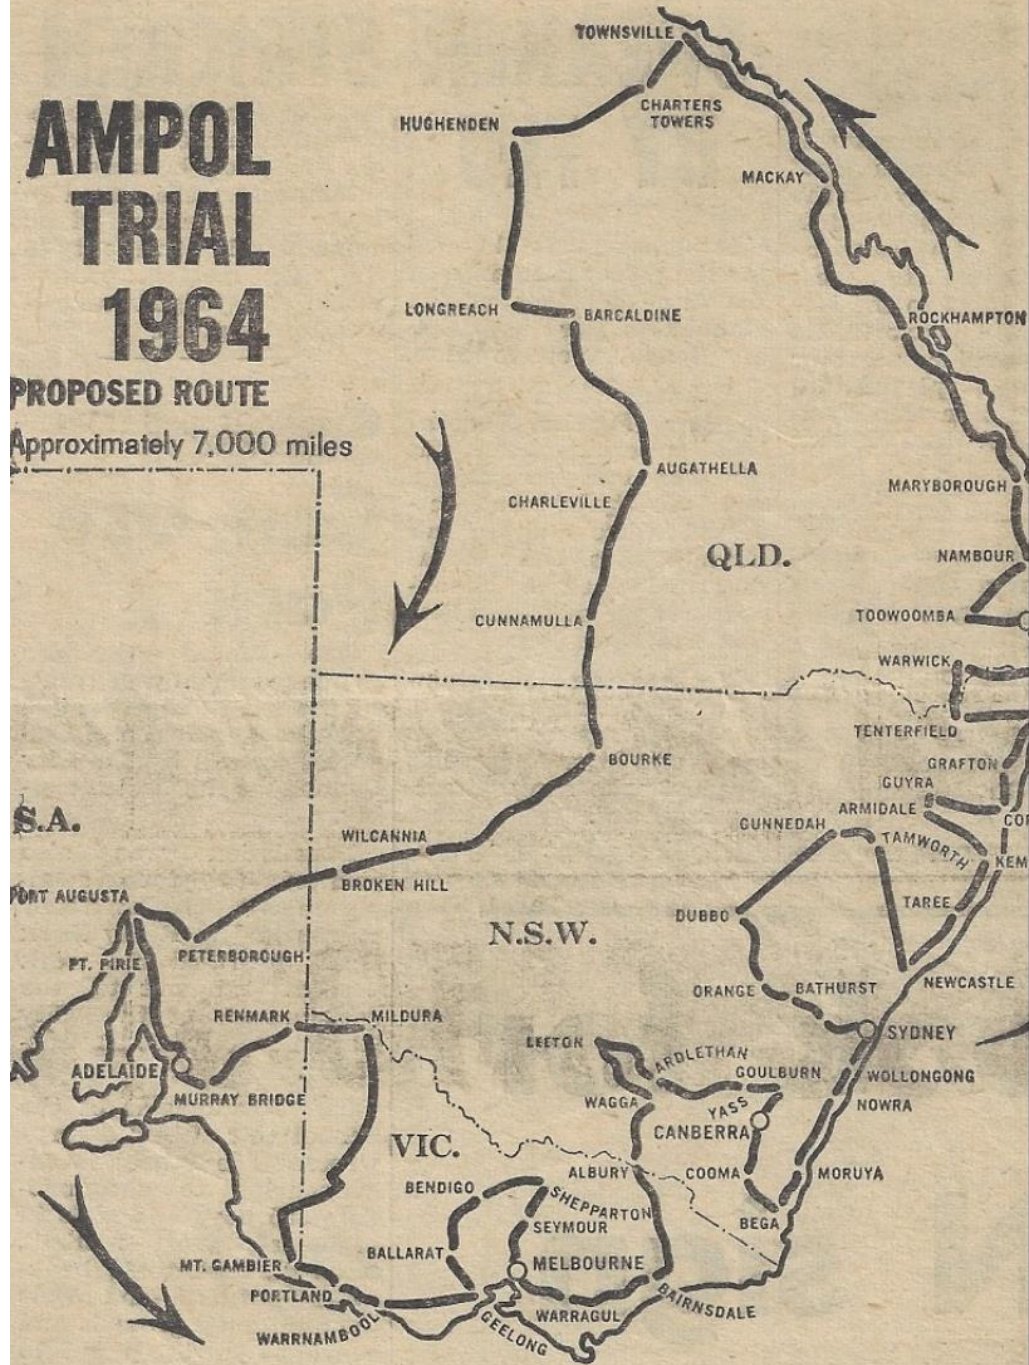

A crowd estimated at 1,500 took part.

The carnival will continue tonight with a massed display by local Highland pipe bands.
